The Barossa Valley Gliding Club is again holding their Easter Regatta this year on 1st - 4th April, 1983. It promises to be a fun time for those involved (they've even promised to sweep the runways!). Enquiries regarding the event can be made by phoning the B.V.G.C. member Philip Beale on: 085 2588017 or 085 224969

Anyone interested in forming an A.U.G.C. entry in their regatta should contact Andrew Sawyer (255 3646) or Dennis Medlow (42 509)

R U L E S O F T H E A I R

It has come to the General's attention that some club members have tried to avoid the rules of the air test recently given by the C.F.I. on the excuse that they live in the country. The General would like to point out that they can't escape that easily and alternative arrangements for taking the test (necessary for pre and post solo pilots) can be made with the C.F.I.

E D I T O R I A L

Yet another newsletter out, and not too early either, its getting very close to the start of the Uni term and all those fresh young innocent first year undergraduates will be arriving in droves to enlist in the Uni Gliding Club. Be prepared!

On a more serious note, the clubs activities are somewhat curtailed at the moment due to a lack of those unloved but vital people, namely instructors, (we're missing 3 at the moment). This situation should be less severe after March/April when we get 2 back, but for the moment please grin & bear it and spare a thought for the poor b... in the back the next time you do one of your atrocious landings.

Also, start thinking about the AGM on April 6th, who do you want to be this years leader?

The General

Hey,...lets be careful up there (apologies to Michael Conrad)

GLIDING

Wind in my hair,
Flies on my back,
Socks full of prickles,
Tired, sunburnt neck

And yet -
Free as a bird,
That fascination of flight,
Will I go back?
Well.....I just might!

ORIENTATION WEEK

O R I E N T A T I O N W E E K 1 9 8 3
7th - 11th March

WHAT IS IT?

Orientation (or "O") week is the first week of the academic year for most students, it involves introductory lectures from both the University academics and the Students' Association. It is also a time when most clubs and societies on campus campaign for new (and renewing) members! Our promotions activity will be targeted towards the new first-year students.

HOW DO WE PROMOTE OURSELVES?

There are four ways of promoting our activities during O-Week.

1. On Monday - Thursday of O-Week we will have a display on the Barr Smith Lawns advertising our activities, members of the club will be in attendance to answer questions and collect memberships.
2. On the Wednesday of O-Week in the Dining Rooms at lunchtime we will have a brief introductory talk and show the film "Dawn Flight".
3. All throughout O-Week promotions material will be distributed to high student traffic areas.
4. (Last but not least) Our campus members can help out by spreading news of our club and its activities by word of mouth to friends and associates on campus.

WHAT ABOUT INTRODUCTORY FLYING

The club will be flying at the Gawler Airfield on two occasions during O-Week, contact the co-ordinator for this event (Guy Harley) for more details.

HOW CAN I HELP?

Easy, contact the Secretary (42 5093) or Guy (31 7340) and offer your services, there's plenty to do.
